Date-Krumm displays a dignified consistency in the WTA Circuit. Her presence in Monterrey against opponents at least 20 years younger, confirmed her nice form, despite losing in three tight sets in the Semi Final. Buyukakcay is trying to enter the WTA world, but she hasn't shown her maximum potential lately. Her baseline tactics could be enough comparing to inferior opponents, but she needs to do more against a versatile player, as the Japanese's drop shot is highly ranked in her repertoire.

FINAL VERDICT

Buyukakcay has already failed to team up a competitive doubles partnership with Pemra Ozgen, escaping a double bagel at the last stages of the match. Although Date-Krumm was playing lots of tennis lately, her level of play was quite convincing. She is superior in all technical specs and it is certain that she will try to bring her opponent close to the net, where it is her least favored area. The Japanese is in fine form, has a never-say-die attitude and she can claim a second round spot.
