Australian Open Finalist arrived in Kuala Lumpur on Sunday and she took adequate time to adjust to the new time zone. Cibulkova has managed to establish her name among the top players this year. Pemra Ozgen started her Malaysian campaign partnering with Cagla Buyu-cackay, but they were expected to do more. Her one handed backhand could be used to meet Cibulkova's forehand, but it cannot be expected to overcome the Slovak's superior two handed backhand in cross court rallies.

FINAL VERDICT

Cibulkova looks determined for this tournament as she visits Kuala Lumpur for the first time in her career. Ozgen's ratings were reduced by the highest factor of 5% (0.95), due to the recent opponents she faced in the ITF Circuit Level. If the Davis Cup and Doha Tournament are not to be considered seriously, Cibulkova has produced sublime tennis in 2014. She looks to be quite above her opponent's level and it would be a major upset if the Slovak will not get through in straight sets.
