Goerges made light work against Kateryna Kozlova, as the teenager wasn't able to tick all the right boxes when forced to come up against the German's weapons. Goerges used her powerful serve and some blistering ground strokes, which kept the Ukrainian on the back foot for most of the match. The 26 year old German looks to be up for a good run in Kuala Lumpur, after suffering a shock exit in Dubai to Flavia Pennetta (being up a set and 5-2 up in the second) . Goerges possesses superior net skills and she is expected to mix it up , against a proven baseliner.

FINAL VERDICT

After being solid enough for Lisicki's plan, Dulgheru continued on the same level against China's Duan, managing to neutralize her powerful strokes, doing a lot of damage with her impeccable backhand. Goerges had a rather easy draw so far as she is trying to capitalize on her recent good form. The German is demonstrating a clear blistering hitting plan, but at the moment Dulgheru looks quite healthy and determined to exploit her opponent's liabilities, especially if most of the workload is transferred on the backhand sides.
