Dulgheru was able to match her game plan against Wozniacki especially in long rallies in Doha, being impressive on how well she could use approach shots. Unfortunately she had to retire in the middle of the second set after being troubled by upper respiratory tract infection. The score-line is not giving a fair view of the match, as the Romanian was up for a fight in most of the points. She showed how well she could keep Wozniacki trapped on the baseline, forcing her for that extra shots that called for the stamina and world class skills of an ex no.1 player.

FINAL VERDICT

Lisicki had a disastrous start in 2015, although this was accompanied by some cruel close losses. In her last match against resurgent Zaslavova Strycova, she displayed positive momentum during all match, indicating that a turnaround might be in the corner. Humid conditions are a plus for the German as her opponent might find it tough to adopt given her recent respiratory issue. Still, a healthy Dulgheru can contribute towards an exciting late show. A decider is expected, where Lisicki can grab a marginal victory.
