Hsieh is regaining form in the right time in singles campaign after a rather mediocre 2014. Recent performances over competent opponents in Dubai and in Fed Cup indicated her adaptability against younger opponents. Eguchi is another similar occasion, who is on the way to establish her name on tour. Both had to overcome stubborn opponents in three sets, showing exquisite skills on crucial points. Eguchi dominated last meeting on similar surface and apparently she can feel the potentials against an opponent who has doubles activities as the core business.

FINAL VERDICT

Hsieh showed great stamina to tackle with Dellacqua's counterattack, in a thrilling match that exposed both players' liabilities but even more their assets, as Hsieh was able to display her doubles skills in decisive points, settling down her tricky left-handed opponent. Eguchi is on the rise she has some good weapons to show in the future. Turning the tables to Mestach was not an easy thing to do, as the Belgian was performing close to her best. Still, Hsieh is a level ahead and she is expected to prevail.
